Activity : Research of Corporate Social Accounting and Reporting

We will hold a conference at least once a year and publish a journal about corporate social accounting and reporting once a year.

Publication program :

- (1) Accounting Information and Disclosure : Disclosure of Social Information (edited by Prof. T. Yamagami at Osaka City University) will be published on May 1989. 16 members of the association and Prof. H. M. W. Schoenfeld at University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign wrote articles in this book. This book is consist of two parts. Part one is about the theory of corporate social accounting and reporting and part two is about the practice of corporate social disclosure in the world (England, West Germany, France, USA and Japan).
- (2) Handbook of Corporate Disclosure : Guidline of Corporate Social Accounting and Reporting is being edited by Japan Corporate Social Accounting & Reporting Association and will be published on March of 1990. Almost all of members of this association is joining in this project. Probably this book will be a first hand-book of corporate social accounting and reporting in the world.
